Hello everyone,
Research on the STABLER family is going very slowly. For your reference, I am including some information on Gottlieb Stabler (the only documented immigrant to Orangeburg district) and his children. Any added information on this family will be appreciated. I have documented my ancestors back to about 1790 but I have not made the link to Gottlieb Stabler's family. The search is continuing.

Note that I have no information on Gottlieb's daughters. Records on daughters are particularly difficult to find. I hope some of you have a record of a link to this family. The sons have a few more documents recording their lives, but their wives names are needed. I know that several had additional children, but the ones shown are all the documentation that I have found so far.

Here is the information I have: As usual, this is for assistance in your personal research and is not a source document. Some information may not be documented.

Generation 1
Gottlieb Stabler (other spellings - Staebler, Stebler) seems to have been the ancestor of most if not all of the Stablers in central South Carolina and many Stablers in Alabama (his son John Jacob moved there around 1820).
Gottlieb's bible records facts of his and his wife's origins[1]. He was born in Freudenstein, in the Maulbornn circuit, Duchy of Wuerttemberg[1].
Today Freudenstein is a part of Knittlingen, postal code 75438, just 2 or three miles north of Maulbronn (or 15 miles east of Karlsruhe). This is in Southwest Germany, NNW of Stuttgart. He was born 9 January 1732 and baptized 20 January 1732, the youngest of 9 children of Christian and Margaret Stabler [2]. Details of his life in Germany, exactly when he left Germany, and his port of departure are not available at this time.

The date and means of his arrival in South Carolina is uncertain but it was probably in 1756. Documentation of port and ship are needed. On 30 Aug.

1756 Gottlieb received a 50 acre grant in Saxe-Gotha township[3].

This

land was located in what is now South central Lexington County, in the town of Cayce, near the Congaree River. On 12 July 1757 Gottlieb married Anna

Barbara Ziegler[1]. She was the daughter of Donald David Ziegler and was born on 27 March 1733 in Siestadt in Heystem circuit in duchy of Wuerttemberg, Germany[1]. The location of Siestadt has not been determined.

Her family, including 9 children, settled in Orangerberg District, SC in 1752 and her father died shortly after that (Her mother remarried in 1753){1a}.

Gottlieb and Anna had twelve children as recorded in their family bible.

Little is known of Gottlieb's life or how he lived. He was probably farmer. On 2 Feb.(?) 1770 Gotleber (Gottlieb) Stabler received a 200 acre grant in Amelia township, Orangeburg District[4]. No indication was given as to the reason for the grant. This land was near Buckhead Creek and adjacent lands were those of George Stonewinder (Stivender/Steinwinder) , Martha Wallis, George Thomas, Thomas Allison, John Compillies (?) and Robert Inatson (?). Gottlieb was on the Petit Juror list for Saxa Gotha in 1778-1779 (The Jury Lists of SC, G. L. C. Hendrix and M. M. Lindsey), indicating a continuing link to his initial settlement.

Property Records:

On 28 April 1775 Gottlieb Stabler and his wife Barbara, planter of Berkley County, Saxagotha Township, Oragnegurgh Districtsold 50 acres of land in Saxe-Gotha (origional grant?) to Henry Patrick of Saxagotha township for 500 pounds SC money. Adjacent to land of Jacob Zimmerman. Recorded 12 March 1778. Referenced in "SC Deed Abstracts 1773-1778" by B. Holcomb, W-4, p266 - 268

On 4 A pril 1785 Gudlip (Gottlieb) Stabler was granted (purchased) 460 acres for 10 pounds, 14 shillings sterling, grant signed by William Moultrie, governor of SC [5]. This land was located in the District of Orangeburg on the mouth of Cedar Pond Creek bounded to the North by land surveyed for William Ruful Thomson, to the South by the Edisto River and on all other sides by vacant land. This could indicate a growing prosperity for Gottlieb; alternatively, this could have been Gottlieb Stabler, Jr. that made the purchase.

On 6 March 1786 Gudlip (Gottlieb) Stabler was granted (purchased) 180 of land for 4 pounds, 4 shillings sterling, signed by acres William Moultrie, governor of SC [6]. It was located in the District of Orangeburg on the waters of Beaver Creek, a branch of the Congaree River. This area is now Lexington or Calhoun County, location uncertain.

Gottlieb sold cattle to the SC militia in the Revolutionary war[7] but little is known of his life. The date of his death is unknown, but is probably after 1790. In the 1790 SC census dated 6 March 1790, Gutlip (Gottlieb) Stabler lived in the North part of Orangeburg District, next to

Jacob Ziegler and Gaspar Sistrunk. In addition to Gottlieb there were
- two males over 16 years. Note: Gottlieb's sons John George and Fredrick were also listed in the census as head of households living separately. The two males living in Gottlieb's household could have been two of his three other sons over 16: Gottlieb (31), Andrew (20), or John Jacob(18).

- One male under 16 years. Note: This was probably Christian who would have been 11 at that time (listed as Christianna in Gottlieb's bible, but documented by census and other records later).

- One white female. Note: This could have been Gottlieb's wife or a daughter if his wife had died. The other daughters could have been a) married, b) dead, c) living in their brothers' households : John George had two females in his household and Fredrick had four females in his household (his known daughters were born after 1790).

- No slaves
Note: The Gottlieb Stabler in the 1790 census could have been either the original immigrant or his son. I have no record of the death of either one. The only later mention of Gottlieb Stabler is probably the son: S.C.

Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol 3, p 136, Abstract of deeds, mortgages, etc. recorded in the Registrars office in Orangeburg District, SC., "June 1st, 1820 - Conrad Reaf (sold) to Gutlip Stabler - 50 Acres in Orangeburg District". This was probably the son of the immigrant Gottlieb.

This is currently the only mention I have found of either Gottlieb stabler after 1790.

Generation 2:

There is no information is available (as of Aug 1996) on Gottlieb's daughters. This is an area of research that would take a lot of effort.

Possibly some information will be found in related family histories.

2.1. John George Stabler (b. 24 Oct. 1758, d. 20 Feb. 1801, SC) In the 1790 Census (Mar 6, 1790), John George Stabler was listed living next to Fredrick Stivender (possibly his wife's father or brother?, see below) with the following in the household:

- Another male over 16, possibly one of his brothers
- Two males under 16: Possibly Two sons (George Lewis and ?)
- Two white females: Probably his wife and a daughter
- No slaves

An alternate possibility is that one of his brothers was married and was living in the household with his wife and young son, or that one or two of his sisters were in the household. John George Stabler does not appear in the 1800 census, even though he was apparently alive at that time.

John George Stabler's wife may have been Elizabeth Stivender based on some undocumented information but this needs more research before it can be used as fact. According to St. Matthews Lutheran Church records: "On 4 Jan

1801, burrial of Mrs. E. Stabler, age 25". - [Speculation: This E. Stabler could have been Elizabeth. Mr. & Mrs. George Stabler's daughter

Elizabeth was christened on 4 Jan 1801 (at funeral?). Mother died in or short time after childbirth? This is questionable since she would have married unusually young if George Lewis was her son (born about 1890)].

Children of John George Stabler: Source: S.C. Magazine of Ancestral Research,

- Vol V, p. 142, Records of St. Matthews Luthern Church:

"Elizabeth christened January 4, 1801 by parents Mr. & Mrs. Stabler" (could be J.G. or another family, other information indicates John George)

"Andrew Christened Dec 25, 1799 by parents Mr. & Mrs John Stabler" (note:

This could have been John George or John Jacob, see speculation in John Jacob's file)

- Vol VI, p. 101, "Burials - St. Matthews Lutheran Church - 1801, Feb. 20

Mr. George Stabler (Br. Creek) - 42 yr." John George Stabler (and his wife?) died in 1801.

2.2. The only mention of Gottlieb Stabler II (b. 8 Apr. 1760, d. after 1 June 1820?) is the sale of land in 1820. Since the original immigrant gottlieb would have been 88 then, it was probably the son. More data may be available, but I have not focused on him. S.C. Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol 3, p 132, Abstract of deeds, mortgages, etc. recorded in the Registrars office in Orangeburg District, SC., June 1st, 1820; page 136, "Conrad Reaf to Gutlip Stabler - 50 Acres in Orangeburg District"

2.3 Frederick Stabler (b. 30 Feb 1763, d. after 1 Aug. 1807) also has very little documented information. Per the 1790 Census (Mar 6, 1790), Fredrick Stabler lived in the N. part of Orangeburg District next to Fredrick Stivender with the following:

- One white male under 16, [son?]
- Four white females: [wife? daughters? (although there is no record of daughters born in 1790 or earlier) and/or sisters? (not living with their father at this time according to the census)].
- no slaves

The St. Mathews Lutheran Church records record baptism of his three daughters: Maria & Anna (twins) and Harriet. No other children are recorded to Fredrick Stabler but there are felt to be several others. Based on the S.C. Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol V, p. 142, Records of St. Matthews Luthern Church: "Harriet Stabler christened Aug 1, 1807 by parents Mr. & Mrs. Fredrick Stabler." No records have been found about Fredrick Stabler's wife or his death date.

2.4. Andrew Stabler (b. 5 May 1770, d. ?) has very little information recorded about his life. Recorded Children - Source: S.C. Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol V, p. 142, Records of St. Matthews Luthern Church: "Catherine christened Feb 22, 1801 by parents Andrew Stabler" (wife died?). 2.5. John Jacob Stabler (b. 8 July 1772, SC, d. May 1844, Claiborne, Al) moved to Alabama about 1820 and founded a large group of Stabler's in that area. There are several researchers documenting this branch and they have additional information on John Jacob Stabler. They record his children, but nothing is known of his wife. SC records of his children from S.C.

Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol V, p. 142, Records of St. Matthews Lutheran Church:

1) "Andrew christened Dec 25, 1799 by parents Mr. & Mrs. John Stabler"
- This is thought to be son of John George but it could have been son of John Jacob. Also note that John Jacob is thought to have a son Andrew who married Mary Martha Gramling and moved to Alabama with his father.

The

same date for christening of Mary (below) and Andrew could indicate twins or one child christened at +1yr. of age.

2) "Mary christened Do (Dec 25, 1799?) by parents Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stabler."

3) "Alexander Stabler christened August 1, 1807 by parents Mr. & Mrs. Jacob

Stabler of Bea. Cr."

S.C. Magazine of Ancestral Research, Vol 3, p 132, Abstract of deeds, mortgages, etc. recorded in the Registrars office in Orangeburg District, SC., June 1st, 1820, "Jacob Stabler to Fredric Heath - 170 Acres in Orangeburg District." This 170 acres of land John Jacob Stabler sold could have been in preperation to moving West. He was in the 1810 SC census (J.

Stabler) but not listed in the 1820 census. Then in the 1830 Alabama census he is listed: Monroe Co - Jacob Stabler (50-60 yr old), born SC.

2.6. Christianna Stabler (b. 3 July 1779, SC, b. 24 Sept. 1848, SC) was known as Christian in all documentation except the family bible. This was Gottlieb second son named Christian, the first died as an infant. I have

Hello,
I have been slowly collecting information on my ancestors in South Carolina for the last 3 or 4 years. I am originally from Swansea, SC. I now have my STABLER ancestors documented back to about 1790. The next link is possibly to one of Gottlieb STABLER's sons but no documentation yet. I am currently looking for any other STABLER that settled in SC prior to 1800. The other names that I am interested in are SAYLOR, CRIM (1806 & earlier), WISE (1833) , JUMPER (1820), & Rucker (before 1848).

Gene, I recd an answer to my query about the Stablers to the OGS and Beverly Shuler said I should contact you for information. I am seeking information on the wife of John Jacob Stabler b. 1772 Orangeburg SC d. 1844 Monroe Co. AL. His father was Gottlieb Stabler b. 1731 Germany. Could you help me on this? I do have "A Quaint Record" by Salley and have gotten lots from it but I cannot find anything about John Jacob Stabler's wife. Thanks in advance. Carolyn Jeffrey Luker in Atlanta dzuh65a@prodigy.com. PS - did your ancestors ever spell their name Jeffrey?

Have been in contact for some time with a Stabler researcher by name:

Francis Stabler

2096 Cameo Drive

Troy, MI 48098-2409

He seems to be a nice guy but his reciprocity leaves a bit to be desired.

Dear Gene,

I was interested in the information on the Stabler family. I believe my g-g-g-g grandmother was Ann or Nancy Stabler. She married J. Arthur Reid, and is listed in the 1850 census as being 41 years old. She is listed in the will of J. Arthur Reid, filed 12 August 1869 (Office of Probate Judge of Orangeburg, Apartment 15, package 3) Does anyone have any information on her or J. Arthur Reid?
